

Nagoya Regional Immigration Services Bureau has started a consultation service for supporting foreigners residing in Japan: “Foreign Residents Assistance Team” (FRAT)

Nagoya Regional Immigration Services Bureau staff provide consultation and support to foreigners residing in Japan.

I divorced my husband, who is a Japanese national. I heard that I have to leave Japan due to my visa status. What do I have to do in order to continue to live in Japan?

I lost my job due to the COVID-19 pandemic and cannot find a new job. What will happen to my visa status?

We will help you solve your problem considering your visa status.

○ Location

Nagoya Regional Immigration Services Bureau 1F
(General Information Center for Foreign Residents)
5-18, Shoho-cho, Minato-ku, Nagoya City, Aichi Prefecture
(1 min. walk from Nagoya Keibajo-mae Station on Aonami Line)

○ Hours (★Appointment only)

Monday to Friday 8:30 to 16:00.
* Except 12:00 to 13:00.
* Except national holidays

○ How to make an appointment

For the moment, we are receiving appointment requests by telephone.

☎052-559-2111

(Appointments by telephone are in Japanese only as we have not prepared a multilingual service yet.)

Please tell us the following when making an appointment.

- Requested date and time
- Your name
- Your contact information
- Nationality
- Visa status
- Period of stay in Japan
- Residence Card number
- Whether you need an interpreter or not
- Language if you need an interpreter
- What you want to consult us about

*You don't have to tell us anything you don't want to